

SMALL FRUIT

for the Home Garden and Grower

VARIETIES HEIGHT SPREAD HARVEST TIME YIELD ZONE HARDINESS DISEASE RESISTANCE THORNLESS FRUIT COLOUR FRUIT SIZE FLAVOR FRESH DESSERTS FROZEN PRESERVES COMMENTS

BLUEBERRY - Plant 2 varieties for better pollination and harvest.

Bluecrop	180 cm (6 ft.)	180 cm (6 ft.)	July	Heavy	4 - 9	Excellent	Yes	Blue	Large	Superb Sweet	Good	Good	Good	Good	Good hardiness and very good productivity.
Chandler	180 cm (6 ft.)	210 cm (7 ft.)	July - August	Very Heavy	4 - 9	Excellent	Yes	Blue	Largest	Full Robust	Good	Good	Excellent	Excellent	The world's largest blueberry , with some berries reaching the size of cherries. Long ripening season that may last up to 6 weeks. Self pollinating
Duke	180 cm (6 ft.)	180 cm (6 ft.)	July	Very Heavy	4 - 9	Excellent	Yes	Blue	Large	Savory Sweet	Good	Good	Good	Good	Blooms late and ripens early, which protects blooms from frost. Very heavy crop.
Northland	180 cm (6 ft.)	180 cm (6 ft.)	July	Heavy	3 - 9	Excellent	Yes	Blue	Medium	Fresh Sweet	Good	Excellent	Good	Excellent	Berries have a high sugar content. Bright yellow stems are great in landscaping.
Pink Lemonade	150 cm (5 ft.)	150 cm (5 ft.)	July - August	Good	4 - 9	Excellent	Yes	Pink	Medium	Sweet Mild	Good	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	A new and unique variety. Pale green berries ripen to medium sized, glossy, bright pink fruit. Fruit has good firmness and a mild flavour.
Reka	180 cm (6 ft.)	180 cm (6 ft.)	July	Heavy	4 - 9	Excellent	Yes	Blue	Medium	Excellent Rich taste	Good	Excellent	Good	Good	Fruit is very firm with very good flavour.
Tophat - Dwarf	45 cm (18")	60 cm (24")	July - August	Heavy	3 - 9	Excellent	Yes	Blue	Medium	Wild Sweet	Good	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Compact, mounded habit, ideal for containers on the patio. In spring, bushes are covered with white blossoms that bear fruit mid season. Self-pollinating.

EVERBEARING RASPBERRY - Early Summer and Fall crops of berries that are produced on canes each new year. Mow the canes to the ground at the end of the season.

Autumn Bliss	180 cm (6 ft.)	90 cm (36")	August - October	Heavy	4 - 9	Good	No	Red	Large	Mild	Good	Good	Good	Good	For a summer crop, cut back canes partly after fall fruiting.
Fall Gold	180 cm (6 ft.)	90 cm (36")	August - October	Good	3-9	Good	No	Yellow	Large	Excellent	Excellent	Good	Good	Excellent	The fruit is large, firm, yellow-gold in colour with an excellent flavour.
Heritage	180 cm (6 ft.)	90 cm (36")	August - October	Heavy	3-9	Excellent	No	Red	Large	Sweet	Good	Good	Good	Good	A rare raspberry that doesn't need staking. For a summer crop, cut back canes partly after fall fruiting.
Nova	180 cm (6 ft.)	90 cm (36")	August - October	Good	3-9	Excellent	Light Spines	Red	Medium	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Extremely winter hardy and heat tolerant. Canes are vigorous, growing upright with light spines.
Prelude Pat# 11747	180 cm (6 ft.)	90 cm (36")	August - October	Good	3-9	Excellent	No	Red	Medium	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Extremely winter hardy. Earliest to ripen. For a summer crop, cut back canes partly after fall fruiting.

SUMMER BEARING RASPBERRY - One crop of berries produced on last years canes, prune out fruiting canes at the end of the season.

Boyne	180 cm (6 ft.)	90 cm (36")	July	Good	2-9	Excellent	No	Red	Medium	Sweet Aromatic	Good	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Extremely winter hardy.
Comet	180 cm (6 ft.)	90 cm (36")	July	Good	3-9	Excellent	No	Red	Medium	Sweet	Good	Good	Good	Good	Berries are dark red, with good firmness.
Latham	180 cm (6 ft.)	90 cm (36")	July	Heavy	4-9	Excellent	No	Red	Large	Sweet	Good	Good	Good	Good	Excellent hardiness and excellent productivity.
Tulameen	180 cm (6 ft.)	90 cm (36")	July	Heavy	4-9	Good	No	Red	Large	Sweet	Excellent	Good	Good	Good	The fruit has good firmness, light red color.
Black	180 cm (6 ft.)	90 cm (36")	July	Heavy	4-9	Excellent	No	Black	Large	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Good	Excellent	Very winter hardy and a very reliable.
Purple	180 cm (6 ft.)	90 cm (36")	July	Heavy	4-9	Excellent	Very Spiny	Purple	Very Large	Excellent	Good	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Fruit are very large with very good firmness.

BLACKBERRY - Thornless canes for easy picking.

Apache	2.5 m (8 ft.)	1.8 m (6 ft.)	July - August	Heavy	5-9	Excellent	Yes	Black	Very Large	Sweet	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Very vigorous canes.
Black Satin	2.5 m (8 ft.)	1.8 m (6 ft.)	July - August	Heavy	5-9	Excellent	Yes	Black	Very Large	Wild, Sweet & Tart	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Berries are very firm. Heat tolerant.
Triple Crown	2.5 m (8 ft.)	1.8 m (6 ft.)	July - August	Good	5-9	Excellent	Yes	Black	Largest	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Named for its three crowning attributes: flavour, productivity and vigor. Mature canes bear up to 30 lbs of berries per plant.

CURRANTS - Rich in flavour and full of vitamins.

Black	180 cm (6 ft.)	120 cm (4 ft.)	July - August	High	3-9	Excellent	Yes	Black	Large	Excellent	Good	Excellent	Good	Excellent	A hardy and vigorous shrub that produces big black fruit with tangy flavor, allow to ripen fully to enjoy the flavour.
Pink Champagne	180 cm (6 ft.)	120 cm (4 ft.)	July - August	High	3-9	Excellent	Yes	Pink	Medium	Excellent	Good	Excellent	Good	Excellent	Unique translucent pink berries.
Red	180 cm (6 ft.)	120 cm (4 ft.)	July - August	Heavy	3-9	Excellent	Yes	Red	Large	Excellent	Good	Excellent	Good	Excellent	The most productive mid-season currant. The fruit are easy to pick.
White	180 cm (6 ft.)	120 cm (4 ft.)	July - August	High	3-9	Excellent	Yes	White	Large	Tangy	Good	Excellent	Good	Excellent	A hardy and vigorous shrub. Allow berries to ripen fully to enjoy the sweetness.

SMALL FRUIT

for the Home Garden and Grower

VARIETIES HEIGHT SPREAD HARVEST TIME YIELD ZONE HARDINESS DISEASE RESISTANCE THORNLESS FRUIT COLOUR BERRY SIZE FLAVOR FRESH DESSERTS FROZEN PRESERVES COMMENTS

GOOSEBERRY - Ideal for desserts and preserves.

Red	120 cm (48")	90 cm (36")	June - July	Good	2 - 9	Excellent	Semi-Thornless	Pink-Red	Large	Sweet	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Very cold hardy, good resistance to powdery mildew.
Green	120 cm (48")	90 cm (36")	June - July	High	3 - 9	Excellent	No	Green	Large	Good	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	Good crop in early-mid season.

MISCELLANEOUS BERRIES - Unique fruit and berries.

Boysenberry	2.5 m (8 ft.)	1.8 m (6 ft.)	July - August	High	5-9	Excellent	Yes	Dark Purple	Very Large	Sweet & Tart	Good	Good	Good	Good	A blackberry-raspberry-loganberry cross. Growth is vigorous.
Hardy Fig	90 cm (3 ft.)	90 cm (3 ft.)	August - September	High	5 - 9	Good	Yes	Dark Brown	Medium	Deliciously Sweet	Excellent	Excellent		Good	Allow Figs to fully ripen before harvesting. Fruit does not continue to ripen after picking. Figs are ready to pick when they are slightly soft and starting to bend at the neck. If the skin cracks open, the fruit is fully ripe.
Josta Berry	1.8 m (6 ft.)	90 cm (36")	July Harvest	High	5-9	Excellent	No	Black	Large	Sweet Black Currant	Excellent	Excellent	Good	Excellent	A currant-gooseberry hybrid. Its vigorous growth must be controlled by a thorough annual pruning. Not as thorny as others, it's very resistant to powdery mildew.
Kiwi Issai	12 m (40')	3 m (10 ft.)	September - October	Heavy	4 - 9	Excellent	Yes	Green No Fuzz	1" Long	Very Sweet	Excellent	Excellent	Good	Excellent	A self-fertilizing variety, though planting a second plant nearby will increase yields. Bears fruit in second year.
Loganberry	1.8 m (6 ft.)	1.5 m (5 ft.)	August - September	Extremely Heavy	5-9	Excellent	No	Reddish Purple	Very Long	Intense Tart	Good	Excellent	Good	Excellent	A blackberry-raspberry cross. Growth is vigorous and the plants need to be tied to a fence.
Tayberry	1.8 m (6 ft.)	50 cm (20")	July - September	Good	4-9	Excellent	No	Purple Red	Large Conical	Sweet	Good	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent	A blackberry-raspberry cross. Growth is vigorous and rapid, and the plants need to be tied to a fence.

ALL PURPOSE GRAPES - Ideal for eating fresh, juice and jellies.

Concord	6 m (20 ft.)	180 cm (6 ft.)	Mid September	Good	5 - 9	Good	Yes	Dark Black	Large	Very Sweet, Slightly Bitter	Excellent	Good	Good	Excellent	Vigorous growth. The most popular juice grape.
Fredonia	6 m (20 ft.)	180 cm (6 ft.)	Early September	High	5 - 9	Excellent	Yes	Dark Blue	Very Large	Good	Good	Good	Good	Excellent	Large bunches of big, dark blue, thick-skinned fruit. Vigorous growth
Niagara	6 m (20 ft.)	180 cm (6 ft.)	Mid September	High	4 - 9	Excellent	Yes	White	Medium	Sweet, Juicy, Floral	Excellent	Good	Good	Excellent	Vigorous growth, adapts well to adverse conditions.

COLD HARDY GRAPES - The hardiest grapes on the market.

Beta	8 m (26 ft.)	180 cm (6 ft.)	Late August - September	High	3 - 9	Excellent	Yes	Blue Black	Large	Slightly Bitter	Excellent	Good	Good	Excellent	Good climber, not suitable for wine.
Prairie Star	8 m (26 ft.)	180 cm (6 ft.)	Early September	High	3 - 9	Excellent	Yes	Yellow	Large	Good	Good		Good		Ideal for white wine blends.
Valiant	5 m (15 ft.)	180 cm (6 ft.)	Late August	Heavy	3 - 9	Moderate	Yes	Blue Purple	Large	Mild, Slight Bitter	Excellent	Excellent	Good	Outstanding	Hardest grape available. Dark blue table fruit.

SEEDLESS GRAPE GRAPES - Preferred for fresh eating or for raisins.

Himrod	8 m (26 ft.)	180 cm (6 ft.)	September	High	5 - 9	Excellent	Yes	Green	Medium	Excellent	Excellent	Good	Good	Excellent	Medium bunches of seedless green fruit. Very vigorous growth.
Sovereign Coronation	8 m (26 ft.)	180 cm (6 ft.)	Early September	High	4 - 9	Excellent	Yes	Blue Black	Large	Sweet & Musky	Excellent	Good	Good	Excellent	Excellent for juice, wine or for deserts, but less so as table grapes. Vigorous growth.
Vanessa	8 m (26 ft.)	180 cm (6 ft.)	Early September	High	5 - 9	Excellent	Yes	Deep Red	Medium	Tangy Sweet	Excellent	Good	Good	Excellent	This table grape has a crunchy core and soft skin. Keeps well and grows vigorously. Great for wine.

WINE MAKING GRAPES - Ideal for wine

De Chaunac	6 m (20 ft.)	180 cm (6 ft.)	Early October	Heavy	5 - 9	Excellent	Yes	Red	Medium	Sweet					Vigorous growth. Sensitive to fire blight if the spring is cool and humid. Produces excellent red wine.
Foch	6 m (20 ft.)	180 cm (6 ft.)	Late September	High	4 - 9	Excellent	Yes	Black	Small	Sweet					Protect from birds with netting. Vigorous growth. Produces excellent red wine.
Seyval Blanc	6 m (20 ft.)	180 cm (6 ft.)	Early October	High	5 - 9	Moderate	Yes	Green	Large	Clean & Crisp					Small bunches of excellent quality green fruit. Medium growth, the foliage is sensitive to powdery mildew.
White Reisling	6 m (20 ft.)	180 cm (6 ft.)	Late October	High	5 - 9	Moderate	Yes	Green	Small	Aromatic Sweet					The small green bunches are so tight that rot can occur if humid conditions prevail. Ideal for sparkling wines.